

The Rrefund & Cancellation Policy

- * The fees paid towards account opening charges for enabling equities and commodities, or any other services is non refundable.
- * In case D.R fails to open an account within 10 days of submission of all necessary documentation and authorisation by the client, such clients may request a full refund of all the charges paid towards account opening.
- * In case you have paid the charges relating to the account opening multiple times, please Raise a query and we will initiate the necessary procedure to refund your money.
- * No refund once Trading and Demat account is opened.

Note: The completion of the refund procedure is subject to agencies such as banks, payment gateways.